

TECHNIDATA America Medical Software Launches
a Brand Website for its Middleware Solutions:
www.td-harmony.com

Tucson, Arizona: January 18th, 2010

TECHNIDATA America, TECHNIDATA's North American division and supplier of Laboratory IT solutions, is pleased to announce the launch of www.td-harmony.com. A website dedicated entirely to its innovative brand of Middleware solutions: TD-Harmony.

TD-Harmony Suite offers a range of Middleware solutions designed to enhance Laboratory Information Systems. Positioned between the lab's diagnostic instrumentation and LIS, the application adds intelligence, automation, efficiency and reliability into both the Core Laboratory and Microbiology production environments.

Site visitors have immediate access to product information and web-demonstration scheduling, as well as the latest product release news, web-based events, frequently asked questions, offers and more.
