culture of operational excellence for the benefit of laboratories and healthcare institutions.

"TECHNIDATA has a unique technological legacy and dedicated teams. My ambition is to channel this collective energy around a clear vision: to deliver increasingly high-performing, interoperable, and user-centered solutions," stated Cédric Garnier, Chief Executive Officer of TECHNIDATA SAS.

Othman Ghannam, Group Leader of Groupe TSS is delighted : "I am very pleased that Cédric is taking over the management of TECHNIDATA. With his extensive experience in healthcare software and his in-depth knowledge of the market, he will bring new momentum and support the company with its ambitious projects. I am confident that this appointment will also contribute to the development of Groupe TSS's Healthcare division in France."

This appointment marks a new milestone in the development of TECHNIDATA, which will leverage the synergies within Groupe TSS to consolidate its leadership in the field of medical software for in vitro diagnostics.
